Guidance notes

The following notes are provided as a guide only and do not have any legal effect. These notes cannot be relied on in substitution for, and do not affect the interpretation of, the Constitution of WMI, the Water Entitlement Agreement, the Water Delivery Agreement, the General Conditions, the WMI Transfer Rules or any other contract or rules that bind WMI and its customers.

- 1 If Delivery Entitlement Units are held, or to be held, jointly by two or more persons, each person must be named as a party and each person must sign this application. The parties' details must be identical to the details on their respective Agreements with WMI.
- 2 The transaction is subject to the applicant paying to WMI all outstanding debts and other amounts payable.
- 3 Delivery Entitlement Units cannot be transferred outside the irrigation district of the Landholding to which they relate.
- 4 Security in the form of a bank guarantee, a cash deposit or another agreed form if, after the transaction, the buyer would either hold no Water Entitlement Units or would hold more than five Delivery Entitlement Units for every Water Entitlement Unit held in the same entity name.
- 5 The transaction will take effect upon its entry into the Registers by WMI or such other date as WMI may specify.
